"Sing unto the Lord,
O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping
may endure for a night,
but joy cometh
in the morning.

And in my prosperity
I said, I shall never be moved" (Psalm 30:4-6).

"Thou has turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou has put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;

To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent.

O Lord my God,
I will give thanks
unto thee forever"
(Psalm 30:11-12).

Learning to Wait on the Lord

Probably one of the hardest things that we are called to do as Christians is to wait on the Lord. "Teach me thy way, O Lord," David wrote, "and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies. Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty. I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord. We have to learn the way of the Lord. It isn't natural to wait on the Lord," especially when the enemy attacks us from all sides. It is natural for us to want to get even and to fight back.

If it weren't for God's mercy we couldn't be overcomers. Some of the most disturbing news could devastate people without the Holy Ghost. We have the Holy Ghost and we can stand strong because we have our "loins girt about with Truth."

Truth is a weapon that we can use to be victorious. It doesn't matter how great the enemy seems to be in our vision. What matters most is making sure that we have God in our vision! He alone has already conquered every enemy that we must face. He's our friend and he'll stick by us through it all.

Whatever you are facing today, Jesus is the answer. He is the only one who'll never leave you nor forsake you. Sometimes we even fail ourselves. I know that I used to condemn myself for my past. But that was before I put it under the blood of Jesus Christ. Now I am washed clean. I have a new body and a new life. My sins have been forgiven and what is even a greater miracle to me: I've been able to forgive myself through the power of the Holy Ghost. I'm drawn to the verse in Romans 8:1-2: "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death."

I repented of my sins; I was baptized in Jesus' Name; I received the gift of the Holy Ghost. As a result of the Lord's blessing in my life, I can worship God! He is my strength and my shield; my heart trust[s] in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him. The Lord is their strength and he is the saving strength of his anointed. Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever" (Psalm 28:7-9) You are welcome to worship him in Spirit and in Truth.

Today is the day of salvation. Secure your future today with Jesus. -gm

The Top 10 Reasons Why The Average Christian Can't Play Baseball

10. Doesn't practice all week, but expects to start on game day.
9. Gets upset when every ball that's hit doesn't come directly to him.
8. Never swings at a pitch because, "this pitcher doesn't throw like the last pitcher. The game's just not the same since he left."
7. Wants to run home before going to first base.
6. Chatters in order to keep his own teammates from hitting the ball.
5. Doesn't come to the game unless the coach personally calls him on the phone, each week, and invites him to show up.
4. Won't run after the ball if it's more than three feet away. After all, surely somebody will get it sooner or later.
3. Thinks baseball cleats are for leaving neat designs on his teammates backs.
2. Gets upset because the phone line to the bull pen doesn't have call waiting. If it did, he could gripe about how bad the pitcher is doing, and yet never miss out if someone wanted to talk about the catcher.
1. Thinks the game will last so long, that the concession stand will be closed before it's over.
