What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's" (1 Corinthians 6:19-20).

Where He Leads Me, I Will Follow

I will follow where He leads me, through the valley and the hills
I will trust Him for there's no other, who can all my needs fulfill.
In sickness and in health, He is my strength and my song,
In life's battles, He is my shield; in my weakness, he is strong.
Oh, when all the world's against me, my ideas and my plans
I look to the creator of heaven, earth, and man.
In Him, I put all my confidence, my trust my faith my life
With His hands, He holds my future; my past, He leave behind.
There is therefore now condemnation to those who believe
And if we are in Christ Jesus—we have everything we need. -gm

“He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God” (Micah 6:8). I have asked the Lord to show me what he requires of me on many occasions in my walk with God.

What do I do next, Lord? I used to get so overwhelmed when I had too many different directions to follow, until the Lord led me into his presence and told me that I would have opportunity after opportunity to worship him openly and to be a witness over the course of my lifetime. He said that it would be wise for me to learn how to pace myself.

Not everything that we are called to do is urgent, but if we will learn to lean on God, we will have a better chance of overcoming our enemies. Paul reminded the church: “Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: everywhere and in all things, I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me, notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction” (Philippians 4:10-14).

Sometimes the simple act of trusting God is all that is required to get God's blessing working in our lives. Many times, we make major decisions without even asking God. We wait and announce to the Lord what we did after the fact. We have it very backwards if we expect the Lord to be Lord of all. I have found that every time I run full steam ahead without consulting the Lord through prayer, I work twice as hard to achieve less work.

The story changes if I wait on God. With God, I can do exploits, I am able to juggle responsibilities and minister to more and more people. “Tis' so sweet to trust in Jesus, Just to take him at his word, I'm so glad I learned to trust him. Just to know thus saith the Lord.”-gm

“But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him: and with his stripes we are healed.”
(Isaiah 53:5).

Willie's Korner

God, Speak to Me

The man whispered, “God speak to me,” and a meadowlark sang. But, the man did not hear. So the man yelled, “God, speak to me!” And the thunder rolled across the sky. But, the man did not listen. The man looked around and said, “God, let me see you.” And, a star shined brightly. But the man didn't notice. And, the man shouted, “God, show me a miracle!” And, a life was born. But, the man did not know. So, the man cried out in despair, “Touch me, God, and let me know you are here!” Whereupon, God reached down and touched the man. But the man brushed the butterfly away and walked on. Don't miss out on a blessing because it isn't packaged the way that you expected. Submitted

Wisdom of the Ages:

“If you lose your eyesight, you lose contact with things. If you lose your hearing, you lose contact with people.” —Helen Keller
 “It is difficult to believe that someone can differ from us and be right.”
 “Good things come to those who wait, but not for those who wait too late.” —Forest Sprague
 “I'm not into working out. My philosophy: No pain, no pain.” —Carol Leifer
 “I love deadlines. I love the whooshing sound they make as they fly by.” —Sean Hammon

Until next time, Willie
