Praise Him in the Sanctuary

Praise. It doesn't always come easily. As Apostolic Pentecostals, we have experienced true praise and worship. It happens every service that we enter into an atmosphere charged with the Holy Ghost and with prayer. People raise their hands and surrender their will to God, and he in turn pours out his Spirit on all flesh. The more that we praise him, the more that he'll raise us to a higher level in our worship. The things that seemed difficult to accomplish, at first, will become easier to do. When we lift up holy hands in the sanctuary, we give him our adoration for all that he's done for us. In an atmosphere filled with the anointing, most any person could live for God.

After experiencing spirit-filled services like we have, what happens to our praise when we walk through the double doors for home? Do we sometimes leave it at our pew when it's time to go? Leaving the power source, requires us to be charged up with his Spirit. Not every saint who is filled with the Holy Ghost lives in an environment that reflects the church. Some people are challenged to live for God without the body of Christ there encouraging them to lift up the name of Jesus.

For many people, home is an extension of the church that reflects their commitment to Christ, because it's saturated with prayer. They are blessed, but for others, going home is like going to a mission field: they live the life of Christ in an hostile and unchurched environment, because they may be the only one in their family living for God.

The Lord expects us to set an example of Christ, even when our families don't live for God. We're called to fulfill God's plan, and to go ye therefore into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. Every time I enter into his presence, I ask that he prepare me to be a sanctuary.

We are living in this world, but we aren't of this world; we can still be overcomers, through his precious blood, because His Name has redeemed us.

If you think that you are walking alone, pray that the Lord would open your spiritual eyes to let you catch a glimpse of the host of angels that surround you on every side. Their backs are towards you, and they are watching all around you to keep you out of harm's way.

Church, we are the sanctuary. Never fear to take a stand for truth because you have all of heaven at your disposal—you cannot fall, if you'll trust him and put him first in all things. gm

“But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him: and with his stripes we are healed.”
(Isaiah 53:5).

“Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you”
