Isn't it Time to Put Your Trust in God?

Do you believe that God cares what happens to you on a day to day basis? Today, if you will turn over your life to Jesus you will experience peace in the midst of a troubled world. When all the world seems to be in jeopardy, you can have confidence in the one who created the world. “Be still and know that I am God.”

I like the phrase: Be still. A lot happens when we are still in the Lord. When we invite the presence of the Lord into our lives we can make our requests known and we do most of the talking to God. What he desires of us is that we look to him for our every need, and have faith in him to know the best time frame to give us the desires of our heart. Every one of us relies on Jesus to take our next breath. He breathes life into our bodies; we are so dependent on him; yet, how often do we take him for granted? We don't even think about what our bodies require to move through our day. We have miles and miles of arteries and veins that carry our blood, but it's not until one of those arteries gets blocked that we pay attention. We need God. On the other hand, it is because we trust God that we are able to function without worrying about our next breath, or step we take. We know that Jesus has his angels watching out for us.

Sometimes when I drive, it seems that it takes forever to get to my destination, I will need to stand in an extra long line at the store, or the grocery carts are lined up behind my car so that I'm unable to pull out of the parking space. These small annoyances can be either viewed as a hindrance or a blessing.

When was the last time that you were delayed and an accident had just occurred a few seconds before you passed in that direction? Your delay may have saved your life. We spend so much time in a great hurry to go everywhere, and we never slow down long enough to take a walk with Jesus in the garden. We are like Martha, while Jesus longs for us to spend quality time at his feet like Mary. You see, God has great plans for us, but we must learn to listen to his directions in order for his will to unfold in our lives. If you want to experience true peace, then you must learn to trust the Lord.

How much more at peace would we be if we learned how to wait on the Lord and to just be still. He will never leave us nor forsake us, and every time that we call his name, we get his attention. He loves us. We may not be able to explain why he loves us; after all, we are so self-critical, but he still loves us enough that he moved heaven and earth so that we could inherit eternal life with him. Are you ready to stop running from God and start running toward him? The benefits are tremendous; the retirement plan is out of this world. Worship with us, today, and welcome to Pentecost! -gm "Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away. Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness: (Isaiah 41:9-10).

"For in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power" (Colossians 2:9-10).
