Memorial Day, 2018

Litany of Remembrance

In the rising of the sun and in its going down we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind, and the calm of its stillness, we remember them.

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

In the midpoint of the year, and as its beginning and end, we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now part of us, we remember them. (author unknown)

Memorial Day, 2018: Memorial Day was set aside as a time to give honor to our veterans. If it hadn't been for their dedication to fight, we'd not be enjoying our freedom today. Thank you. We take for granted the opportunities that are given to use liberally on a daily basis. Many of those freedoms that we don't think much about cost the lives of innocent young men in the heat of a battle. For many, Memorial Day is about picnics, parties, and vacation time, but in America we are blessed that the men and women who accepted the call to service, fought so that we could have the freedom to do the very things that we all look forward to on Memorial Day.

I want to take the time to recognized the families of fallen men and women who sacrificed all, so that we could keep our way of life, in a free country. While we remember those who gave so selflessly, take the time to honor the families who are affected by the decisions that those in service made. I know it must have been difficult for them to be willing to lay down their lives for others, but that is the character of those who fight for our freedoms.

Spiritual warfare is another battle that we fight; the main difference being that the enemy has already been defeated. It is a matter of receiving a gift. Our salvation is a gift that has already been paid for at Calvary. We have a choice to accept or reject the gift of life, and in this great nation we can experience our freedom of religion,, Truly we are blessed and one day, as it says in Isaiah 2: 4-5, they shall “...beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears unto pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord” (Isaiah 2:4-5). What a wonderful place it would be without war.

We are delighted that you chose to be with us, today. You are invited to enter into his presence with thanksgiving for he has done marvelous things. May the Lord richly bless you and your family. -gm
