God's Faithfulness is Unending

“Give unto the Lord, O ye mighty, give unto the Lord glory and strength. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness....The Lord sitteth upon the flood; yea, the Lord sitteth King for ever.

The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace” (Psalm 29:1-2; 10-11).

I'm thankful, today, because I have the assurance that no matter what difficulty I am called to face, God is in control. There are no obstacles that the Lord can't overcome. That is an awesome promise in this time when almost everything could fail. I hold to great expectations for the coming year, and if I'll put my faith into action, I'll see great miracles come to pass.

Let's start today receiving from God all that he has in store for us. I think about when I first came into the Pentecostal church, and how that I had been damaged by sin and circumstances. Nothing could take away the remorse of broken dreams or the hurt of knowing that I had made the wrong choices that took me so far away from God. While I was lost in a sea of turmoil, God was waiting for me to just turn around and let him pick me up.

You see, God never left me alone; I left God. Satan is a liar and the father of lies. He told me that God didn't care about me—lie number one. He said that I could never be clean and whole from the stench of sin—lie number two. One of the greatest lies Satan told me was that my sin was too great to be forgiven. Jesus went to great lengths to make the way to salvation, and he doesn't love me? The Lord says that I can overcome sin through the word of my testimony.

What are you anticipating to happen this Sunday morning? We have prayed and fasted, and the results are still trickling in that says that we are victorious. Whose report will you believe? If you are tired of living in the same routine, you are invited to receive from the Lord everything that he offers. He waits for you to open the door to your heart, because he wants to fill your life with eternal hope and peace. Will you allow Jesus Christ to dwell in your temple? Worship with us, today, with all of your heart, soul, mind and strength. -gm

God's Faithfulness is Unending

In the course of my life
I see God's faithfulness in different ways
It's like the rose that blooms every spring
It's like the air that
I'm breathing every day
It's like the sun that rises every morning
Alas, what if the sun refuses to shine, and the stars concealed by dark clouds?
What if the storm comes, and the wind blows all that I have
Does God's faith still linger?
And are His words still true?
Then I look on the cross
And the price He has to pay instead of me
I look on the blood
that washes my sins away
I look on His wounds that heals me from my disease
And indeed, in every way God is faithful
He is and will remain faithful
He teaches the bird to fly;
And teaches me to walk
He knows the strands of my hair;
It is because I am
fearfully and wonderfully,
Made in my mother's womb
Yes, God is faithful

“Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting;
 and his truth endureth to all generations.
 I will sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee,
 O Lord, will I sing”
 (Psalm 100:4).
