“And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. And whatsoever ye do in words or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.” (Colossians 2:15-17).

Giving Thanks Never Goes Out of Style

If we forget how to be thankful for the path that we must walk, will we neglect to reach out for others who may struggle to find their way?

Will we keep silent—

This truth, and hide behind our own insecurity?

It's time that we learned that not all bad things are meant to break us;

God allows bad things into our lives to make us stronger.

When we are broken, he promises to be with us, during those times when we are weakened by the strain of despair surrounding us, and blind to our own faults that hinder our complete surrender,

Our desire is for God to remove all the obstacles,
yet, we fail to ask him to do it.

May I always remember, that once

I was the neighbor who was lost and searching,

Lord, never let me forget the path that I must take.

Keep me ever pressing toward the mark for much is at stake.

You are God; I'm made in your likeness, and
I pray that you won't let me fall or fail my neighbor.

When all the walls reach above me

May your presence dwell within me,

In the night when darkness falls;

Don't let me forget on your name to call.

May I never get too high, too holy, too busy

May I never reach such a place of satisfaction or complacency,

That I can't do the work that you have called me to do.

Teach me to sit at your feet and in your presence

Even when everything begs for my immediate attention.

Let me know that you are God and nothing will ever take your place.

Help me Lord to continue on to find you

Don't ever let me turn away from truth, or lose you.

Help me share your light with others.

Teach me to trust you even in the midst of night.—gm

Willie's Korner!

Psalm 14:1 Proved!

A college student was in a philosophy class which had a discussion about God's existence. The professor presented the following logic:

"Has anyone in this class heard God?" Nobody spoke.

"Has anyone in this class touched God?" Again, nobody spoke.

"Has anyone in this class seen God?" When nobody spoke for the third time, he simply stated, "Then there is no God."

One student thought for a second, and then asked for permission to reply. Curious to hear this bold student's response, the professor granted it, and the student stood up and asked the following questions of his classmates:

"Has anyone in this class heard our professor's brain?" Silence.

"Has anyone in this class touched our professor's brain?" Absolute silence.

"Has anyone in this class seen our professor's brain?" When nobody in the class dared to speak, the student concluded, "Then, according to our professor's logic, it must be true that our professor has no brain!"

(...The student received an "A" in the class.) -As told by laughalot-owner@graceweb.org. Thought I'd share it. It makes you think doesn't it.
