“These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

This is my commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends”
(John 15:13).

Welcome to the POG!

You're invited to join us immediately after service for light refreshments in the fellowship hall.

Claim Your Promise

“Thus saith the Lord; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the Lord; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. And there is hope in thine end, saith the Lord, that thy children shall come again to their own border” (Jeremiah 31:16, 17).

“Wherefore, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us” (Hebrews 12:1). You may have prayed for years for a need or a desire in your heart and it still has not come to pass. You have a choice to make: Believe God answers prayer; or never have your prayers answered; for without believing, it will not come to pass. Sometimes it is hard to keep praying when you feel that your prayers are not reaching any higher than the ceiling. Persevere. Endure. Why not choose to believe God in faith? You really don't have any other choice but to believe that God is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him. If you want to see miracles in your life, you must keep believing and claiming God's promise.

The Lord has already heard your prayers and intercessions. He is pleased with your worship, your commitment to keep growing in the faith, and your desire to build a strong relationship with him.

He hasn't abandoned us even though we may feel that we are very much alone. I know that the Lord is with us at all times, even when we don't understand the circumstances that brought us to a place in the wilderness. He knows the plans that he has for us; to prosper us, and to keep us in good health. If you obey the scriptures, you'll know that you have authority in God's word to overcome the adversary. Stand on the word of God, and expect God's best. Let's keep the wheels of revival moving throughout our city. We have a mission to accomplish: who will rise up and accept the calling that the Lord has placed on your life?

In order to go from good to great, we must make this a year of prayer, and today, let's make this temple—a place of worship. “Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen” (Hebrews 13:21). gm

Mission Statement:
The Pentecostals of Greenville is an Apostolic church. We are committed to exalt Jesus Christ; to worship Him in Spirit and in Truth; to proclaim the gospel; to evangelize our community; to minister to people's needs & to provide a spiritual atmosphere of fellowship and growth.

“Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience: And patience, experience; and experience, hope.”
 (Romans 5:1-4).
