Seven Steps to More Effective Ministry

The following steps grew from working with the writing ministry. They can be applied to every area of ministry that you set out to be involved in within the church:

- 1. Pray. Don't forget to pray for the Lord's direction and anointing, without it, anything you do will not last or be effective. Before you move, bend your knees in fervent prayer and find out what the Lord has to say to you.
- 2. Know your limitations. Greater, faster, more modern, or the “bigger barns syndrome” will not help you to do the work at hand. Be content with the tools that the Lord has already provided for you to use. Use your talents as they are and develop them: Let your ministry outgrow your equipment, then, you can make wise decisions about upgrades.
- 3. Commit to the calling that God has placed on your life. If it is truly God doing the calling, no obstacle will stop you from moving forward in Jesus Name. Stay in the word and stand on his promise and direction.
- 4. Stay focused on your goals. Let God arise and his enemies be scattered in your life. When the Lord directs you, listen to what he tells you to do, and then, do it. It is easy to daydream about being famous; it takes dedication to continue even when it looks like you are alone in the walk.
- 5. Be Flexible. Sometimes God's will changes for our lives, and with that so does his directions. It may not always be the smoothest path that we are called to walk, but the end result will be God's perfect will.
- 6. Ask for Help. This is probably one of the hardest steps to follow. It is much easier to do things on our own when we get ideas burning inside. Knowing when to allow others to help us in ministry is a God-given talent in itself and one to be nurtured. Even in the first church, people were appointed to help.
- 7. Always obtain pastor's approval before moving forward with a ministry. Our pastor is the spiritual leader of the church. Get behind the leadership of this church, wait on God to unfold his plan for your life, spend less time fretting and worrying about where you are to work in the kingdom; and spend more time doing the will of God as he leads, and you will produce fruit that will remain. Be faithful and God will help you. “Without a vision, the people perish.”

Isaiah 12:1-4

¹And in that day thou shalt say, O LORD, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me. ²Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation. ³Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation. ⁴And in that day shall ye say, Praise the LORD, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted.

Willie's Korner

Where God Ain't !!!

Author Unknown

He was just a little lad, and on the week's first day.
 He was wandering home from Sunday School, and dawdling on the way.
 He scuffed his shoes into the grass;
 he found a caterpillar;
 He found a fluffy milkweed pod,
 and blew out all the "filler."
 A bird's nest in a tree o'er head
 so wisely placed on high,
 Was just another wonder that caught his eager eye.
 A neighbor watched his zigzag course, and hailed him from the lawn;
 Asked him where he'd been that day, and what was going on.
 "I've been to Bible school, " he said, and turned a piece of sod.
 He picked up a wiggly worm and said, "I've learned a lot of God."
 "M'm a very fine way," the neighbor said, "for a boy to spend his time."
 "If you'll tell me where God is,
 I'll give you a brand new dime."
 Quick as a flash his answer came!
 Nor were his accents faint.
 "I'll give you a dollar, Mister,
 if you'll tell me where God ain't!"
 From "time out with God- Tidbits"

Until next time, Willie
