It's Time to be Led Beside the Still Waters

“Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord: (I Corinthians 15:58).

“He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters” (Psalm 23:2-3). Sometimes we try to pack three days into every day, but the Lord reminds us in Psalm 23 that he'll lead us beside the still waters. Why is it that we stay so busy, especially this time of the year? It is only ten days before Christmas, and many people will be traveling to be with family, but the Lord is still waiting to lead us beside the still waters, today.

Let's not forget that he's still on the throne and in control of our lives: “Hear, O Israel; the Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thine might” (Deuteronomy 6:4-5). When you love someone, you want to spend time in their presence. In his presence, there is fullness of joy, and at his right hand are pleasures forevermore. If we truly desire to have fullness of joy, we will yearn to spend quality time in his presence.

Who could ever fully comprehend the extent of the unconditional love of a Holy God who would choose us to be a part of his church? His blessings reach no end; his love is beyond our highest expectations; his mercy endures forever; his peace can calm the greatest turmoil; his strength will give us new zeal; his salvation is given to us freely; his provision never fails; his living water quenches our thirst; his bread of life satisfies our hunger; and all is well with our soul, because he lives.

Christmas is near, and there will be many reasons to postpone our time with the Lord in prayer and worship, but it doesn't have to be this way; we can still live for God and keep the victory, even when everything is trying to get our attention.

“Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen: Thus saith the Lord that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee: Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen. For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground; I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring: And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses” (Isaiah 44: 1-4).

It's time to let the Lord lead us beside the still waters, so that we may drink and be filled with his spirit. Christmas is near, but the Lord is as close as our next breath and he waits for us to take the time to drink. Let's take the opportunity to worship him, who is worthy of all our praise.

May the Lord richly bless you and your family this holiday season. All first time visitors are invited to join us immediately after service for light refreshments in the fellowship hall. -gm
