What Can we Accomplish if we are ONE?

“And the Lord said, Behold the people is one, and they have all one language, and this they begin to do; and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do” (Genesis 1:6).

“Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven;; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say unto you. That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing in my name, there am I in the midst of them” (Matthew 18: 16-20).

A recent message inspired me to reexamine what I have set out to do for the Lord. I recognize that I can do nothing without the Lord’s direction and leading. I am continually learning how to trust the Lord. For those of us who have always been independent, leaning on Jesus is sometimes hard to do. We do have a tendency to take matters into our own hands. What am I thinking? That I can handle all of these problems alone? Not hardly, I, for one, need God. He expects us to meet him halfway which shows our sincerity and willingness to step out in faith believing.

Our faith is pleasing to God. In The Wheel within the Wheel, Jerrie Chafin talks about faith: “You can not prepare to take a step of faith. You just step out into nothing and God puts the next step under your foot.” What an awesome perspective on faith!

Peter got out of the boat and then, he walked on the water. We know that he began to sink when he got his eyes off of Jesus and started to look at the waves (his circumstances), but what we really need to be looking at is that he got out of the boat when everyone else took the easy and most convenient way. Sure, they loved God; yes, they were sincere; but it takes more than just having a mediocre commitment to be fully victorious. When we learn to give him the gift that he truly desires from us, our time in worship and prayer, he will be able to trust us with more of himself.

We sing that we’d like to be like Jesus, but are we willing to fulfill our obligations to make that come to pass? We are created in his image and he is Lord in our life. Do we take the time to really know him? When was the last time that we worked together in prayer to accomplish a task?

We don’t need to worry so much around here because we focus on prayer, but if our only prayer life is in church, we are missing out on the greatest treasure that we possess: communion with Jesus. Think about it, we can actually have an audience with the Holy One of Israel, on a daily basis. We never need an appointment; we will never be put on hold; and he doesn’t take off on the weekends. He is truly more than wonderful.

We are blessed to have a God who answers prayer, and this morning we are once again able to worship him in Spirit and in Truth. It’s a brand new year. Let’s make the best of it and just, Believe. Thank you for taking the time to be with us today.-gm ◆ Laugh. Laugh some more! Take your work seriously, but yourself, not at all. Develop a forgiving attitude (most people are doing the best they can). Be kind to unkind people, (they probably need it the most.). Sit on your ego. Talk less; listen more. Slow down. Remind yourself that you are not the general manager of the universe. Every night before bed, think of one thing that you're grateful for which you've never been grateful for before. God has a way of turning things around for you. "If God is for us, who can be against us? (Romans 8:31).

Christian Stress Relievers
