They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him (Psalm 126:5).

“Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. I, even I, am the Lord; and beside me there is no savior” (Isaiah 43: 10-11).

Seek Him That He May be Found

(Focus for today: Changing directions in life doesn't always have to cause defeat if we will remember that the Lord allows change to empower us to be fit for his use.)

“Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in good health, even as thy soul prospereth” (3 John 2).

“Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end; While it is said, “To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation....So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief” (Hebrews 3:12-15, 19).

“When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou are mindful of him? And the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou has put all things under his feet:” (Psalm 8:3-6).

Change brings challenges, but we must embrace change and continually be thankful even when our hope is bleak. On the surface we look at our circumstances and we feel powerless to defend ourselves against the ones who would try to destroy us. Sometimes we may wonder if God truly cares about us, or if we are going to continually struggle while others breeze through life, unhindered. There is a place of restoration in Jesus that the world may never experience. When we get wrapped up in the cares of this life and forget that God is able to deliver us because he's still on the throne just remember: “When the enemy comes in like a flood, the Lord will lift up a standard against him.” “The Lord sitteth upon the flood; yea, the Lord sitteth King for ever. The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace” (Psalm 29:10-11).

It's not that we don't have the same desire or the will to reap the blessings of God, and to watch others be blessed; we are committed and we do have a strong desire; however, we get caught up in the routines of our daily existence and we procrastinate, allowing every other pressing task to take precedence over doing the will of God. We feel trapped by agendas and responsibilities. The Lord is calling us to set our house in order. When we learn how to call on God to give us wisdom and to allow every area of our life to revolve around God's will, our families will thrive and be blessed. When we make decisions we'll decide with confidence in God that no matter what challenges we face, that God will never forsake us or leave us comfortless. “My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart” (Psalm 7:10).

The enemy that tries to destroy may be the one who God uses to strengthen you. After you have overcome, then you will be stronger and more blessed than you ever thought possible. He is opening doors that you do not know of and we must learn to trust in God. “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen” (Hebrews 11:1). Thank you for worshipping with us today. gm

God Answers Prayer

When we agree in prayer there is nothing that God will not do. It may not happen overnight, it could be months, and sometimes even years before you see your prayers answered, but never give up praying because it is the lifeline to so many situations. Without prayer there is no hope of recovery. Without prayer, there is no joy. Without prayer, we will not see miracles. Without prayer, you may never recognize the hand of God at work in your life, giving you direction and a purpose to live in victory. Realize that without prayer, we will never appreciate the daily benefits that living for God brings into our lives. When I think about the Lord, how he is eternally faithful, even when I fail; I'm overwhelmed at his mercy and goodness. I know that God answers prayer, and with an assurance that I thought was missing for a season, the Lord has let me know that he is still on the throne and that I will prevail if I will continue to trust him. I know that God is a healer, how about you?

We have been praying for John Frizzelle. Last week, he was on a respirator and taking dialysis at the same time; this week, he is sitting up and talking. Nothing is impossible with God if you will believe. Keep the GOD Answers Prayer reports coming! Put your faith in the Lord because he will never fail; he never slumbers or sleeps, but he desires that we seek his face until he may be found in us. gm

For Safety's Sake...

Do NOT ride in automobiles; they cause 20% of all fatal accidents.

Do NOT stay home: 17% of all accidents do occur at home.

Do NOT walk on the streets or sidewalks:

14% of all accidents happen to pedestrians.

Do NOT travel by air, rail, or water:

16% of all accidents happen on these.

Only .001% of all deaths occur in worship services in church, and these are related to previous physical disorders.

Hence, the safest place for you to be at any time is church.

Bible study is safe, too. The percentage there is even less. Go to church!

IT COULD SAVE YOUR LIFE!

Until Next Time, Willie
