Hosanna to the King-Palm Sunday

Today is Palm Sunday and the beginning of Holy Week. Matthew 21:1-11; Mark 11:1-11; and Luke 19: 29-40 gives the account of Jesus riding into Jerusalem as people laid down palm branches before him. It was a gesture of honor, then, one week later they crucified him. Jesus became our Salvation. On this Sunday before Easter, we are blessed that you took the time out of your schedule to be here to worship with us. There is great joy in having the freedom to worship: not every nation has that freedom. When I think about why we can worship freely, the scriptures remind us of who we can trust for everything:

*Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits,
Who forgiveth all thine iniquities, who healeth all thy diseases,
Who redeemeth thy life from destruction,
Who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies,
Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things,
so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's....
The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy, (Psalm 103:2-5; 103:8).*

The Lord is everything to me. When I think about how he has guided me through all the rough spots in my life, all I can say is thank you, Lord. I have learned after many failures to keep moving forward with his plan for my life. I don't always see how it'll work out, nor do I understand all of the fine details of his operation on my behalf, but just the same, I know that he is doing all things great in my life for my own good.

The Levite priests were entrusted with keeping charge of the sanctuary. Like the Levite, we are separated for a specific purpose: to do the will of God, to serve Him with all of our heart, soul, mind and strength.

Sometimes I doubt that he would use me in his service. But, all the time, I know that I must trust the Lord to work out my life, and I remind myself often “to lean not to my own understanding.”

O, how far away God seems to me when I'm in the flesh. It's not until I start talking to God and worshipping that he begins to pour out His Spirit. Then a miracle takes place in my life. The Lord becomes more real to me.

Do you want the angels in heaven to rejoice over your successes? Win one soul. In light of all the challenges that you'll need to overcome, the greatest accomplishments that you can make, are to seek his will for your life through prayer, share this gospel with others by teaching a home Bible study, and to be a witness. Welcome to the Pentecostals of Greenville! gm

Willie's Korner

Think About it for a While... Jesus.

One Sunday, after church, Mom asked her little daughter what the Sunday school lesson was about. Her daughter answered, "Don't be scared, you'll get your quilts."

Needless to say, Mom was perplexed.

Later in the day, the pastor stopped by for tea. Mom asked him what that morning's Sunday school lesson was about.

He said, "Be not afraid, thy Comforter is coming."

A father wanted to read a magazine, but was being pestered by his daughter. To keep her busy, he tore a sheet out of the magazine that had a picture of the world printed on it. He tore the picture into small pieces and said "Here, now go into the other room and see if you can put this picture of the world back together again."

A few minutes goes by and his daughter appears in the room and hands him the picture all correctly fitted together.

The father was surprised and ask her how she was able to fit all those little pieces of the world back together again so quickly.

"Oh.." she said, "On the other side of the paper was a picture of Jesus and once I got Jesus in the right place, then the world came out alright."

It's TIME FOR CANDY!

It is time to bring candy, candy, candy (preferably in prefilled Easter eggs) that we can use in the Sunday School for our annual Easter egg hunt. Our goal is a thousand eggs this year. Help us be a blessing! Try to bring them early so we'll have time to "hide" them.

Did you miss a Lattereign?

Until next time, Willie
