Marvelous things

God is Still on the Throne; It is Well

People are losing faith in their prayers, in the church and in Jesus Christ; however, God is still on the throne. He is the God of our circumstance, He is the Lord of our needs. He is the solution to our problems. He is the answer to our prayers. He is still God.

We are not promised to be shielded from trials, but if we will keep the faith in God, He will be able to answer our prayers in His will and in His time. Not only do people look at what is wrong in the church, but they also forget who the church belongs to: Jesus Christ.

He will not fail the church and his church will not falter. It may look like the world and the church are out of control, it may seem sometimes that people don't care about anything but their own flesh and comfort, but the message delivered to the church confirms that the church is stronger than ever.

The church will stand because God is on the throne, and He will prevail. Do not be discouraged Sunday School teacher, because God is on the throne. Do not despair saint of God, because God is on the throne. Do not complain about the hypocrites or bad spirits in the church, believer; it is still well with the church, It is well with the church because God is still God.

When you are sick, He's still God, and we are moving forward. People are losing faith in their prayers, and our answered prayers are contingent upon our faith.

We have got to pray for one another, trust God, and submit all to the Lord, because He is at the controls. God is not looking for our abilities, he is looking for our availability. We have to look out for the body: "Brethren, if a man be overtaken in the fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thy self, lest thou also be tempted. Bear you one another's burdens, and so fulfill the Law of Christ."

[Scriptures used: II Kings 4:19-26, Galatians 6:1-5, Jude 20, John 3:14; Ephesians 5:26-27, I Corinthians 1:21]

We have much to celebrate because we have our freedom to worship. I am blessed and thankful that we can be free from the chains of sin. Let's not take it for granted. Exercise your freedom, today, by worshiping God in Spirit and in Truth. -gm

KEEP ON PRAYING! IT'S WORKING! THE LORD WORKS THROUGH OUR WORSHIP.

How badly do you want to see a move of God?

Do you want to win? You'll win through your worship; the more you worship him, the closer you will get to seeing your miracle come to pass.

A amateur photographer was invited to dinner with friends and took along a few pictures to show the hostess. She looked at the photos and commented, "These are very good!

You must have a good camera."

He didn't make any comment, but, as he was leaving to go home he said, "That was a really delicious meal! You must have some very good pots."

Wisdom has two parts:

- 1) Having a lot to say.
- 2) Not saying it.

A family altar can alter a family.

A lot of kneeling will keep you in good standing.

The wish

A bus carrying only ugly people crashes into an oncoming truck, and everyone inside dies. They then get to meet their maker, and because of the grief they have experienced; he decides to grant them one wish each, before they enter Paradise.

They're all lined up, and God asks the first one what the wish is.

"I want to be gorgeous," and so God snaps His fingers, and it is done.

The second one in line hears this and says "I want to be gorgeous too."

Another snap of His fingers and the wish is granted.

This goes on for a while but when God is halfway down the line, the last guy in line starts laughing.

When there are only ten people left, this guy is rolling on the floor, laughing his head off. Finally,

God reaches this guy and asks him what his wish will be.

The guy calms down and says....."Make 'em all ugly again."

Moral: Be careful what you wish for. Until next time, Willie
