They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him (Psalm 126:5).

“Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. I, even I, am the Lord; and beside me there is no savior” (Isaiah 43: 10-11).

A Time of Prayer

“They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles. They shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.”

“I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord, the humble shall hear thereof and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me. Let us exalt his name together.”

The Lord never said that we wouldn’t go through trials, but he did promise that he would never leave us nor forsake us. He promised that if we would abide in him and let his word abide in us, that we could ask anything and he would do it.

We are so blessed to live in a free country, and yet we often take for granted the rights that we have to worship. We have the freedom to lift up holy hands and magnify the Lord, but something holds us back from doing it. We have an abundance of Bibles, but they all collect dust because of neglect. We can go door to door and share the gospel, but we convince ourselves that nobody wants to hear what we have to say. Nobody is interested in hearing about Jesus Christ. We try to justify our disobedience, yet all the while, people are crying out for something more from life.

They cry out, but how will they know if someone doesn’t show them? What will it take to be used of God? Faith to believe that the Lord would call us to be used. Overcoming the doubt that we are capable of being used. Forgiving ourselves for the times that we failed to allow God to use us. Fresh anointing obtained when we learn to seek the Lord until he may be found.

Determination to keep reaching out to those we meet everyday, becoming living epistles of his mercy and goodness, lifting him up, so that all men may be drawn to him. Prayer. It is time to pray and seek the Lord. We have sown the seeds, now, we wait. The harvest is coming. The harvest is coming. We must keep trusting God. Don’t give up on your dreams. Don’t give up on your desires. Don’t give up on God. Don’t give up on yourself. The Lord knows the plans that he has for you. He desires that you prosper and be in good health, even as your soul prospers. Keep believing. Today, we can worship him freely, so “Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations” (Psalm 100:4,5). “And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness” (Acts 4:31).

“But without faith it is impossible to please him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him” (Hebrews 11:6). gm

Scriptures to live by:

“Cast thy bread upon the waters: For thou shalt find it after many days” (Ecclesiastes 11:1).

“He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap. As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all. In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good” (Ecclesiastes 11:4-6).

“Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man” (Ecclesiastes 12:13).

Welcome to POG!

Join us for a guest reception (light refreshments) immediately following service in the fellowship hall.

Willie's Korner

A Sunday School teacher decided to have her young class memorize one of the most quoted passages in the Bible -- Psalm 23. She gave the youngsters a month to learn the verse. Little Bobby was excited about the task, but he just couldn't remember the Psalm. After much practice, he could barely get past the first line. On the day that the kids were scheduled to recite Psalm 23 in front of the congregation, Bobby was so nervous. When it was his turn, he stepped up to the microphone and said proudly, "The Lord is my shepherd . . . and that's all I need to know!"

An 80-year-old couple was worried because they kept forgetting things all the time. The doctor assured them there was nothing seriously wrong except old age, and suggested they carry a notebook and write things down so they wouldn't forget. Several days later, the old man got up to go to the kitchen. His wife said, "Dear, get me a bowl of ice cream while you're up." "Okay," he said. "...and put some chocolate syrup on it and a few cherries, too," she added. "You'd better write all this down." "I won't forget!" he said.

Twenty minutes later he came back into the room and handed his wife a plate of scrambled eggs and bacon. She glared at him. "Now, I told you to write it down! I knew you'd forget." "What did I forget?" he asked. She replied, "My toast!"

Until next time, Willie
