Receive From the Lord!

“Give unto the Lord, O ye mighty, give unto the Lord glory and strength. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness....The Lord sitteth upon the flood; yea, the Lord sitteth King for ever.

The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace” (Psalm 29:1-2; 10-11).

I’m thankful, today, because I have the assurance that no matter what difficulty I am called to face, God is in control. There are no obstacles that the Lord can’t overcome. That is an awesome promise in this time when almost everything could fail. I hold to great expectations for the coming year, and if I’ll put my faith into action, I’ll see great miracles come to pass.

Let’s start today receiving from God all that he has in store for us.

I think about when I first came into the Pentecostal church, and how that I had been damaged by sin and circumstances. Nothing could take away the remorse of broken dreams or the hurt of knowing that I had made the wrong choices that took me so far away from God. While I was lost in a sea of turmoil, God was waiting for me to just turn around and let him pick me up.

You see, God never left me alone; I left God. Satan is a liar and the father of lies. He told me that God didn’t care about me—lie number one. He said that I could never be clean and whole from the stench of sin—lie number two. One of the greatest lies Satan told me was that my sin was too great to be forgiven. Jesus went to great lengths to make the way to salvation, and he doesn’t love me? I know he loves me. The Lord says that I can overcome sin through the word of my testimony.

What are you expecting to happen this Sunday morning? We have prayed and fasted, and if we come into the sanctuary already worshipping God for the victory, it will be ours.

Whose report will you believe? If you are tired of living in the same routine, you’re invited to receive from the Lord—everything that he is offering. He waits for you to open the door to your heart, because he wants to fill your life with eternal hope and peace.

Will you allow Jesus Christ to have complete control of your life? Worship with us, today, with all of your heart, soul, mind and strength. Rejoice in the Lord always.–gm

Scriptures to live by:

"I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill but time and chance happeneth to them all" (Ecclesiastes 9:10-11).

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path" (Psalm 119:105).

"Forever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven" (Psalm 119:89).

Welcome to POG!

Join us for a guest reception (light refreshments) immediately following service in the fellowship hall.

Willie's Korner

Just a thought...

"I am my neighbor's Bible,
 He reads when we meet.
 Today he reads me in my home,
 Tomorrow in the street."

"Going to church doesn't make you a Christian any more than going to a garage makes you an automobile."
