It's Time to Get up and Do it Again

“Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto them, thou art my servant: I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away. Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness” Isaiah 41:9-10).

We have been chosen for this hour to fight the good fight of faith. Let us not grow weary in doing the work of the Lord, because the time for the Pentecostals of Greenville to become the light of Greenville has come. The work that the Lord has called me to do on the Latter Reign has been a blessing to me, week after week. I feel that I have been called to this purpose. Do I feel adequately prepared? No. Have I ever doubted that the Lord would honor my desire to write? Many times. But I know that he has called me, and that his grace is sufficient enough to equip me with the words to write in order to get the job done.

What is ministry? A burden? A blessing? I'm not sure; sometimes it can be a mixture of both, but all in all, I know that I've been called to this purpose and that I must do the work that he has called me to do. I can't back down just because the words don't flow, I must press forward to do the work that he has called me to do. Quitting is not an option. Is it always easy? A thousand times, no, but it is a passion and a calling. Reaching out to this community through words may seem specialized and perhaps not very important, since the paper is a disposable item, but I'm still called, I must press on and do the work that the Lord has called me to do. How do you continue when you don't always see the results of your efforts? “In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good: (Ecclesiastes 11:6).

You just keep on sowing the seeds. Keep on encouraging the discouraged. Keep on obeying the Lord to deliver the message as he gives it to you. Nothing shall stop you from moving forward when you have a single purpose in mind: to do the work that the Lord has called you to. I can't do it in my own strength, I am not gifted in writing; I'm just available and trying to be open to the Spirit. I want to be a vessel used by the Holy Ghost to share this truth: Jesus loves you, and he will not fail you. He is always faithful, and he is a God of provision and strength. He is the healer of all our diseases, and he loadeth us with benefits. He is our Savior and he is coming soon. We must get prepared to meet him, and while we are waiting, we must do the work that he has called us to do.

Don't give up; don't give in; don't fall by the wayside in defeat. Get up; brush yourself off in Jesus' name and keep moving forward. He is still on the throne and in control of your circumstance, so you have no need to fear for he has already won the battle. It is up to us to learn how to follow in the shadow of his wings of protection. —gm

“But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him” (Hebrews 11:6).

“I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness” (John 12:46).

“Jesus said unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him” (John 14:6-7).

“In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not” (John 1:4-5).

“And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day. And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the Lord hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the Lord fought for Israel” (Joshua 10:13-14).

“Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him and he shall direct thy paths” (Proverbs 3:5-6).

“Now I beseech you by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment” (I Corinthians 1:10).

Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much” (James 5:13-16).

Willie's Korner

Opportunity may knock once, but temptation bangs on your front door forever.

There was a very gracious lady who was mailing an old family Bible to her brother in another part of the country. "Is there anything breakable in here?" asked the postal clerk. "Only the Ten Commandments." answered the lady.

Have Faith in God! Don't Give Up!

Until next time, Willie
