I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause:

Which doeth great things and unsearchable; marvelous things without number. Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields:

To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety. (Job 5:8-11)

This is That! A New Beginning.

Today is the perfect time for a new beginning. It's common that we do a deep cleaning this time of year, but have you ever considered that it is a perfect time to do a spiritual cleansing, as well? Life has a way of becoming mundane when all we can look forward to are the same daily routines, and countless disappointments. We may even question whether God is even listening to our prayers.

We can live defeated, or we can live victorious. The key to living a victorious life is to continually renew the spirit of your mind. It isn't easy to begin again when the same failures still try to hinder us from reaching out for a fresh anointing. After all, it seems that every time that we try something new, we become disillusioned and we have no choice but to admit another failure. It is during our greatest weaknesses that the Lord shows his greatest strength to us. If you are continually lacking in his blessings, it's time to make room for your blessings by cleaning out all of the voices that say you can't win in life.

We have all experienced times when we questioned God, but know this; that the Lord will lead you through the path that he requires you to walk. If you follow the plans as he directs your steps; then, you will have peace in the midst of any circumstance that you face. It is during this time of uncertainty that we draw closer to God and learn to trust. We must be willing to remove the doubt from our lives so that he can fill us with hope.

He is the Lily of the Valley. In the valley you may find thistles and thorns and vines that would try to choke your worship to silence. Don't give in to the temptation of complacency. It's not good to be defeated, when the Lord has already won the battle. He has the victory, but unless we believe it, it will not manifest itself into our lives.

His gives us hope in Isaiah 61:1-4:

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek. He hath sent me to bind up the broken hearted to proclaim liberty to the captives and the opening of the prison to them that are bound. To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord and the day of vengeance of our God to comfort all that mourn. To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion to give unto them beauty for ashes and the oil of joy for mourning and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness that they might be called the trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord that he might be glorified.

The Lord promises to give us everything that we need to survive. He does exceeding abundantly above all that we can ask or think.

“And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me” (Matthew 25:40). gm

Just a thought...

“I am my neighbor’s Bible,
 He reads when we meet.
 Today he reads me in my home,
 Tomorrow in the street.”

“Going to church doesn’t make you a Christian any more than going to a garage makes you an automobile.”
