We are the Sanctuary; Give Him Praise.

Praise. It doesn't always come easily. As Apostolic Pentecostals, we have experienced true praise and worship. It happens every service that we enter into an atmosphere charged with the Holy Ghost and with prayer. People raise their hands and surrender their will to God, and he in turn pours out his Spirit on all flesh. The more that we praise him, the more that he'll raise us to a higher level in our worship. The things that seemed difficult to accomplish, at first, will become easier to do. When we lift up holy hands in the sanctuary, we give him our adoration for all that he's done for us. In an atmosphere filled with the anointing, most any person could live for God.

After experiencing spirit-filled services like we have, what happens to our praise when we walk through the double doors for home? Do we sometimes leave it at our pew when it's time to go? Leaving the power source, requires us to be charged up with his Spirit. Not every saint who is filled with the Holy Ghost lives in an environment that reflects the church. Some people are challenged to live for God without the body of Christ there encouraging them to lift up the name of Jesus.

For many people, home is an extension of the church that reflects their commitment to Christ, because it's saturated with prayer. They are blessed, but for others, going home is like going to a mission field: they live the life of Christ in an hostile and unchurched environment, because they may be the only one in their family living for God.

The Lord expects us to set an example of Christ, even when our families don't live for God. We're called to fulfill God's plan, and to go ye therefore into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. Every time I enter into his presence, I ask that he prepare me to be a sanctuary.

We are living in this world, but we aren't of this world; we can still be overcomers, through his precious blood, because His Name has redeemed us.

If you think that you are walking alone, pray that the Lord would open your spiritual eyes to let you catch a glimpse of the host of angels that surround you on every side. Their backs are towards you, and they are watching all around you to keep you out of harm's way.

Church, we are the sanctuary. Never fear to take a stand for truth because you have all of heaven at your disposal—you cannot fall, if you'll trust him and put him first in all things.

If we could only see the greater picture: God's unfailing hand at work in our lives and circumstances. When we get to a place when God is all we have, we'll find that God is all we need. God will make a way out of no way. Today, I pray that the Lord will remind me that he is faithful, again.

I know that if I'll learn to keep my eyes on him, I will not fall. It takes a very special anointing to handle the major ups and downs in life. I want to thank the Lord for trusting me enough to allow me to have my share of them. You have faith in me—that I will stand still and know that you are God. Always remind me of the phrase—God is faithful. There is peace in knowing that you, Lord, are directing my life, and if I'll continue to worship you no matter what the circumstances, I can depend on you to go before me to clear the way. Do you know Jesus? Why not today? -gm

Willie's

Ko

What do you do, when you don't know what to do?
 When there's no way out of a situation, and you feel defeated?...

Stand

Fiery trials rage on the mountains you must climb;
 Your sacrifice of praise
 becomes more difficult day after day;
 Victory after victory slips past you each time you pray.
 Sorrows overwhelm you and the pain gives you no relief.
 The possibility of rain, teases you in the time of drought;
 but nothing changes in your wilderness,
 nor in your pangs of doubt.

When you're discouraged and your hope begins to wane
 and all the world's mocking becomes too much to take;
 When you start to doubt God's promises,
 and your shield of faith is battered.
 When living takes the life
 from every joy that you have left:

Lift up your hands and Stand.

Stand still and know that he is God.

Stand therefore with your loins girt about with truth.
 His grace is sufficient and his promises are true
 You'll see his glory, soon, if you faint not.
