Bible Study

Wednesday 7:00 P.M.

Prayer Meeting

Saturday 7:00 PM

We have a work to accomplish in Greenville and if we'll be sensitive to the Holy Spirit and to his leading, we'll be more than conquerors. We will see blinded eyes opened; deaf ears unstopped; financial miracles materialized: because the Lord says in 3 John 2, "Beloved I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in good health, even as thy soul prospereth."

Remembering When It Was That Simple.

I knew that there was a great big God in heaven who loved me, but when I was only eight years old, he seemed so far away, and why would he even want to listen to someone as insignificant as me? That didn't stop me from talking to him, every day. I spent many hours outside, walking through the cornfields and to a clearing in the woods behind my house, sitting on a fallen log.

I didn't know what I was searching for, other than great bugs and briars, but that didn't stop me from going, because I could look up through the trees, and I knew that we could talk about anything. It seemed that the light filtered through leaves on the very spot I was sitting. I liked how close I felt to him.

Decades have passed since that time, five decades, in fact, but the time I spent in his presence on that log, has made a great impact on my life. No matter where I am, when life becomes confusing, and I have to make a decision, I can close my eyes, and go back to the still thoughts of my childhood, and remember what it was like to be there, just listening to the rustling of the leaves, knowing that no matter how small and insignificant I was, that God thought I was important enough to die for. He loves me.

Our motto for this year is "Built on the Rock." Never forget that no matter how confusing the world may be in the last hours of our time, here, that God is in control and that if we put our trust in him, we shall prevail. This song reminds us of that promise.

1. My hope is built on nothing less Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame, But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

*On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.*

2. When darkness veils His lovely face, I rest on His unchanging grace;
In every high and stormy gale, My anchor holds within the veil.

3. His oath, His covenant, His blood, Support me in the whelming flood;
When all around my soul gives way, He then is all my hope and stay.

4. When He shall come with trumpet sound, Oh, may I then in Him be found;
Dressed in His righteousness alone, Faultless to stand before the throne.

I am thankful for being a part of the Pentecostals of Greenville for 30 years. It's been an amazing journey.-gm

God Will Provide

A young woman brought her fiancé home to meet her parents. After dinner, her mother told her father to find out about the young man.

The father invited the fiancé to his study for a talk.

'So what are your plans?' the father asked the young man.

'I am a biblical scholar,' he replied.

'A Biblical scholar. Hmmm,' the father said. 'Admirable, but what will you do to provide a nice house for my daughter to live in?'

'I will study,' the young man replied, 'and God will provide for us.'

'And how will you buy her a beautiful engagement ring, such as she deserves?' asked the father.

'I will concentrate on my studies,' the young man replied, 'God will provide for us.'

'And children?' asked the father. 'How will you support children?'

'Don't worry, sir, God will provide,' replied the fiancé.

The conversation proceeded like this, and each time the father questioned, the young idealist insisted that God would provide.

Later, the mother asked, 'How did it go, Honey?'

The father answered, 'He has no job and no plans, and he thinks I'm God!'

The Wisdom of Children

You can't fool the kids in Sunday school, they are way too smart...

'If I sold my house and my car, had a big garage sale, and gave all my money to the church, would I get into heaven?' I asked the children in my Sunday school class.

'NO!' all the children answered.

'If I cleaned the church every day, mowed the yard, and kept everything neat and tidy, would I get into heaven?'

Again the answer was, 'NO!'

'Well, I continued, 'then how can I get to heaven?'

A five-year-old boy shouted, 'You gotta be dead!'
