The Royal Bloodline

(editor’s note: This article today is submitted by Caidence Sumner, 13, of the Pentecostals of Greenville!)

When you see purple, you probably think, “Oh yeah, that’s a beautiful color! What about it?” Or you thought, “Purple....Gold...Go Pirates!” It is a gorgeous color, but have you ever thought about the history behind such a color?

Back in the day, purple was only found in your rich class, mainly royalty. That is because the dye came from a special type of snail that was located around the Phoenician trading city of Tyre. 9000 of these slugs were needed to create just one gram of Tyrian purple dye! When I think of Jesus, He is wearing a beautiful, elegant robe of purple and silk, another sign of royalty, another item only the rich had. When silk was invented, only the royal family was allowed to wear fabric made of silk, something special to mark those of royal blood. Also, gold is obviously an expensive item, usually most valuable after being refined and such in its gold, shiny form as we know it.

I’d like to think when you’re filled with the Holy Ghost, God gives you something to show you have the spirit of royalty. “The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.” (Romans 8:16-17) The bible says heaven is paved with streets of gold. But this gold is different. Those streets of gold become more expensive over time with the testimonies that lie within of the saints that will live there in eternity. I think God gives you a spiritual protection of silk. He might also put a gold and purple shimmer above your head, a halo of sorts. Something to mark that you’re in his kingdom and that his spirit flows through you. Something to prove that your seat in his kingdom is already reserved and awaits in heaven, ready for when you accept your invite of eternity. Something that is individually assigned to every single one of us.

No one else can see that shimmer as it is. It’s there, not physically visible, but God can see it. And you can share the beauty of it. You can share how to receive that royal invitation by telling people about Jesus and how He can save them! How He can welcome them into His Royal Bloodline! —cs/edited by wm

It's Time For Candy!!!

On Easter Sunday morning the children will have an Easter egg hunt during Sunday School! So, we need your help! It is time to bring candy, candy, candy, (preferably in prefilled Easter eggs) that we can use in the Sunday School for our annual Easter egg hunt. If you are out and about, why not pick up some extra candy-filled eggs or just plain candy and help us be a blessing to the kids!
