God's Promises: Worth the Wait

“Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.” (Psalm 145:3) I stand in awe of a God who cares about me. I am nothing without Christ, but He still loved me enough to purchase my salvation with His precious blood. And who am I? The world may question my credentials, but I serve a God who sees my heart and finds me well qualified to fulfill His will in my life. His grace is sufficient for me.

The Lord is coming soon, and we've heard it all of our lives, but we must stay prepared with our lamps filled with oil. We must worship Him in spirit and in truth. We need to make sure to take all of the necessary steps of salvation to be ready. The enemy of our soul will use every thing that we hold dear to shake our faith and confidence in Jesus Christ, but I will not fail! “For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate [me] from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Romans 8:38-39)

“For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” (Romans 10:13) Every week, we hear the word of God preached; time and again, the Lord allows us to use a spotlight into our very soul to reveal the dark places of our heart that need repair. Some of us have been so deeply hurt that we may not even realize the effect it has had on our walk with God. Do you live in victory? or do you live as a victim? I've had to focus on seeking God in the past few months. The Lord has ministered to me every time I get in

His presence. I thank God for His word, and my faith is stronger than ever. Has anything miraculous happened this week? I'm sure it has, although I can't see it right now. That's okay, because I have peace in the midst of my storm. You see, God made me a promise; now I'm waiting for His time to unfold my promise. “So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.” (Romans 10:17)

Sometimes I get frustrated endlessly waiting for God's promises to unfold. After prayer, I promise the Lord that I'll work on changing my attitude. It's like knowing that someone is throwing you a surprise party. You don't want to spoil the surprise, so you wait patiently, knowing that the one who gives the party derives pleasure in planning it. The Lord desires to bless us and to give us good things. When we get impatient, we take the joy of giving from Him. He'll still do it, but when we keep a right spirit towards him, we reverence Him. “Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.” (Psalms 37:4) -gm/wm

Willie's Korner

There are names of 16 books of the Bible in this paragraph. See how many you can find!

I once made a remark about the hidden books of the Bible (merely by a fluke). It kept people looking so hard for the facts and for others it was a revelation. Some were in a jam, especially since the name of the books were not capitalized, but the truth finally struck home to numbers of readers. To others it was a real job. We want it to be a most fascinating few moments for you. Yes, there will be some really easy ones to spot. Others may require judges to help them. I will quickly admit it usually takes a minister to find one of them, and there will be loud lamentations when it is found. A little lady says she brews a cup of tea so she can concentrate better. See how well you can compete. Relax now. There really are sixteen names of Bible books in this story.
