Scriptures to Live By

“Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.” (Proverbs 22:6)

“And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him , and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.” (Luke 15:20)

Give Honor to Men of God

Today, we want to wish everyone a happy Father’s Day. Whether this is your first time to have a child or if you don’t have children at all, you have made an impact on those around you. Speaking on behalf of all of the children and families, we’d like to thank you for accepting the sometimes overwhelming responsibility that has been placed on you. We realize that it isn’t easy for you to get up and work every day, in all kinds of weather, but you still manage to pull yourself up and do it as unto the Lord. When you get ready to leave, you may think about the blessing of God, or you may just feel weary in well-doing, yet you still manage to make the effort. Thank you for your sacrifice of love and time.

What are some significant attributes of a good father?

1. A man of God must be faithful in everything. He must put God first and foremost in his life and lead his family, into the truth, by his example.
2. A man of God must know the value of prayer and pray fervently.
3. A man of God must know the importance of being available for the church and his family.
4. A man of God must be a good role model. So many children who come to church do not have male role models. Either they don’t live with their father or their father doesn’t come to church with them. You are the one that they watch, and your response to them could determine whether they live for God or reject salvation.
5. When there is a problem, a man of God will try to solve it to the best of his ability. If he can’t solve the problem, he will push aside his pride and ask for help.
6. A man of God is the spiritual leader in his home. When it’s time for prayer, he encourages his family to pray; when it’s time for church, he makes sure that everyone gets to church on time. When his family enters into the sanctuary, they know that it’s time to worship the Lord in spirit and in truth, and they aren’t ashamed to be used by God in a miraculous way because they have been led by a man of God

Without men of God, we’d be missing a vital part in God’s plan. Thank you for obeying God and happy Father’s Day to all the great men of the church who make such a difference in our lives. –gm/wm

Some Quotes About Fathers.....
 "A good father is one of the most unsung, unpraised, unnoticed, and yet one of the most valuable assets in our society." -Billy Graham
 "My father didn't tell me how to live; he lived, and let me watch him do it." -Clarence Kelland

- "Any man can be a father. It takes someone special to be a dad." -Anne Geddes
- "My father gave me the greatest gift anyone could give another person: he believed in me." - Jim Valvano
- "It is a wise father that knows his own child." -Shakespeare
- "The most important thing a father can do for his children is to love their mother." -Max Lucado
- "The older I get, the smarter my father seems to get." -Tim Russert
- "When you teach your son, you teach your son's son." -The Talmud

Mission Statement:

The Pentecostals of Greenville is an Apostolic church. We are committed to exalt Jesus Christ, to worship Him in Spirit and in Truth, to proclaim the gospel, to evangelize our community, to minister to people's needs and to provide a spiritual atmosphere of fellowship and growth.
