If We Could Only Open Our Eyes

“I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.” (Psalm 121)

The battle is not yours, it belongs to Jesus Christ. What would it be like if we could see how the angels are moving in step with every move we make in the name of Jesus? Think about it: you have nothing to fear because you can see the angels who have come to fight the Lord’s battle. How often we move through our days with break neck speed only to realize when the day is over that we haven’t spent any quality time with family or with God. The Lord lets us know that we will go through trials in this life, but when they come, it’s no time to back down or give up on God! He is the only sure foundation. Everything that we put our hand to do may fail, but we can rest assured that long after we have lost everything that we thought was important, God will be there for us.

It’s hard to believe that He’d let us struggle so, but I wish that the Lord would let us get a glimpse of the angels who are encamped about us just waiting to come to our defense. Job lost it all, but if you’ll look at the end of the book, he gained everything back and a double portion. We will end up with more than we could ever imagine possible, if we learn to trust in God and lean not to our own understanding. When we forget to pray about situations, the Lord reminds us that we must trust Him to know what is best for us. When He withholds the things that we desire the most, it is still for God’s glory and He will be working all things out for our good according to His purpose in His time. He makes sure that the right circumstance will be available to cause us to triumph.

Are you ready to take the next step and reach a deeper place in God?

Or, do you feel like I have felt on occasion, clueless about the best way to do it. Sometimes we feel abandoned: we have convinced ourselves that we are the only ones living for God. If only we could see what the Lord has in store for us; if we’ll only believe that he is “a rewarder of those who diligently seek him,” there will be nothing to stop us from reaching our full potential in Christ! Have faith in God. As the old song goes, “Turn your eyes upon Jesus. Look full in His wonderful face. And the things of earth will look strangely dim in the light of His glory and grace” (from Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus by Helen H. Lemmel).

Welcome to The Pentecostals of Greenville. We are so excited that you chose to join us today! -gm/wm

Scriptures to live by

“And he said, Harken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, thus saith the Lord unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God’s.” (2 Chronicles 20:15)

Acts 1:8 "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

Let's be a witness. Let's be a soul winner. Let's be a prayer warrior. Let's be a bible study teacher. Let's do the work and the will of God!

A great way to start the year!

Korner

A Sunday School teacher decided to have her young class memorize one of the most quoted passages in the Bible -- Psalm 23. She gave the youngsters a month to learn the verse. Little Bobby was excited about the task, but he just couldn't remember the Psalm. After much practice, he could barely get past the first line. On the day that the kids were scheduled to recite Psalm 23 in front of the congregation, Bobby was so nervous. When it was his turn, he stepped up to the microphone and said proudly, "The Lord is my shepherd . . . and that's all I need to know!"

An 80-year-old couple was worried because they kept forgetting things all the time. The doctor assured them there was nothing seriously wrong except old age, and suggested they carry a notebook and write things down so they wouldn't forget. Several days later, the old man got up to go to the kitchen. His wife said, "Dear, get me a bowl of ice cream while you're up." "Okay," he said. "...and put some chocolate syrup on it and a few cherries, too," she added. "You'd better write all this down." "I won't forget!" he said. Twenty minutes later he came back into the room and handed his wife a plate of scrambled eggs and bacon. She glared at him. "Now, I told you to write it down! I knew you'd forget." "What did I forget?" he asked. She replied, "My toast!"
