Welcome to the Pentecostals of Greenville!

Invite Someone to Church This Easter!

“Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.” (Matthew 28:19-20)

“And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.” (Mark 16:15)

“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.” (Acts 1:8)

It seems fitting that, when Jesus knew his ascension up to heaven was at hand and his time on earth with his disciples was ending, the last words they would hear would be of most importance. Jesus gives them (and us) “the great commission” which is simply to go share the Gospel (the Good News!) to all people, to be a witness on what God has done for you in your life. Many examples are recorded in the book of Acts of the apostles preaching the gospel to many people: Peter’s sermon on the day of Pentecost, Peter and the Gentiles (Cornelius), Philip and the Ethiopian eunuch, to name a few. Paul was greatly used of God as a witness of Jesus Christ. Jesus speaks to Paul who was traveling to Damascus: “But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things, which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee:” (Acts 26:16) He became the New Testament’s greatest sharer of the Gospel and Jesus Christ, evangelizing in over 50 cities and starting up many new churches.

Scriptures to live by

“Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.” (John 4:35)

Easter is coming up in a couple of weeks (April 17th). We will be having two services that morning as we did last year: the first one at 8AM (full scale service without Sunday School or child care) and the other at 10AM (with Sunday School and child care). Of course there is an Easter egg hunt for the kids during Sunday School at 10AM! We also will have our Spanish services that weekend: 7Pm Saturday night in Greenville, and 6PM Sunday night in Greene County! Easter is probably the best time of the year to get people to come out to church, so let’s go for it! We may not be preachers and travel all over the world to proclaim the Gospel as Paul did, but we can invite and talk to those around us right where we’re at! Family, friends, coworkers, spouses, children, grandparents, grandchildren, cousins, neighbors, bosses, people who haven’t been to church in a while, your doctor, convenient store clerk, checkout person at Food Lion... okay, you get my drift...you can invite ANYONE! Talk to them personally, email, phone, Facebook, Easter greeting card, Morse code (huh?), etc. The most effective invite is a personal one. Then you can hand them a church business card! We’ve got plenty of cards in the foyer at church.

Lastly, pray. Pray for a full church. Pray that God will lead you to that one person who is looking for a change in their life. Pray that God’s spirit will draw all those who drive by the church on Memorial Dr. Pray that the people you invite will show up. Pray that those who show will be renewed or filled anew with the Holy Ghost. Pray that God will draw them from the north, south, east and west. Pray for revival. Just pray. –wm

Purpose and Power

Acts 1:8 "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

Let's be a witness. Let's be a soul winner. Let's be a prayer warrior. Let's be a bible study teacher. Let's do the work and the will of God!

It's Time For Candy!!!

On Easter Sunday morning, April 17th during the 10PM service, the children will have an Easter egg hunt during Sunday School! So, we need your help! It is time to bring candy, candy, candy, (preferably in prefilled Easter eggs) that we can use in the Sunday School for our annual Easter egg hunt. If you are out and about, why not pick up some extra candy-filled eggs or just plain candy and help us be a blessing to the kids!

Can You Find 20 Books of the Bible in this paragraph?

(I got 19 because one of them was the meaning of the name of the book lol!)

Someone showed me this story and remarked that there are twenty books of the Bible hidden here. He challenged me to find them. Sure enough, they're all here. Still this thing is a lulu. Kept me looking so hard for the longest time. Some of you will get bogged down with the facts; others are hit by them like they were some kind of revelation. You may get in a jam, especially since the names are not capitalized and often leap the spaces between the words. This makes it a real job to find them, but it'll provide a most fascinating few minutes for you. Yes, there are some really easy ones to spot, but don't get a big head 'cause truthfully you'll soon figure that it would take most federal judges and preachers numbers of hours to find them all. I will admit that it usually takes a minister to find one of them, and that it is not uncommon for there to be loud lamentations when it is pointed out. One lady says that when she is confronted with puzzles like this, she brews a cup of tea to help her concentrate better. But then this gal is a real pro! Verbs, nouns, and all that stuff are her thing. See how well you can compete. Relax! There really are twenty names of Bible books in this story. If you fail to find them, there's a penalty. You'll have to go fly a kite, sit on a banana, hum the Battle Hymn of the Republic, or hose a dog (a mean one).
