Welcome to the Pentecostals of Greenville!

Mission Statement

The Pentecostals of Greenville is an Apostolic church. We are committed to exalt Jesus Christ, to worship Him in Spirit and in Truth, to proclaim the gospel, to evangelize our community, to minister to people's needs and to provide a spiritual atmosphere of fellowship and growth.

You'll Find Jesus There

-Grace had this story in her files. By chance (or God) I stumbled upon it and thought someone (including me) needed to read this. Winning souls is all that matters. Thank you Grace...

"Tomorrow morning," the surgeon began, "I'll open up your heart..."

"You'll find Jesus there," the boy interrupted. The surgeon looked up, annoyed. "I'll cut your heart open," he continued, "to see how much damage has been done..."

"But when you open up my heart, you'll find Jesus in there."

The surgeon looked to the parents, who sat quietly. "When I see how much damage has been done, I'll sew your heart and chest back up and I'll plan what to do next."

"But you'll find Jesus in my heart. The Bible says He lives there. The hymns all say He lives there. You'll find Him in my heart."

The surgeon had had enough. "I'll tell you what I'll find in your heart. I'll find damaged muscle, low blood supply, and weakened vessels. And I'll find out if I can make you well."

"You'll find Jesus there too. He lives there." The surgeon left.

The surgeon sat in his office, recording his notes from the surgery, "...damaged aorta, damaged pulmonary vein, widespread muscle degeneration. No hope for transplant, no hope for cure. Therapy: painkillers and bed rest. Prognosis:," "...here he paused, "death within one year." He stopped the recorder, but there was more to be said.

"Why?" he asked aloud. "Why did You do this? You've put him here; You've put him in this pain; and You've cursed him to an early death. Why?"

The Lord answered and said, "The boy, My lamb, was not meant for your flock for long, for he is a part of My flock, and will forever be. Here, in My flock, he will feel no pain, and will be comforted as you cannot imagine. His parents will one day join him here, and they will know peace, and My flock will continue to grow."

The surgeon's tears were hot, but his anger was hotter. "You created that boy, and You created that heart. He'll be dead in months. Why?"

The Lord answered, "The boy, My lamb, shall return to My flock, for he has done his duty: I did not put My lamb with your flock to lose him, but to retrieve another lost lamb."

Scriptures to live by

“For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.”
(Ezekiel 34:11)

What's Happening!

-Prayer connect group... This Tuesday night, August 2nd, at 7PM!

Grace's Korner

If we could only see the greater picture: God's unfailing hand at work in our lives and circumstances. When we get to a place when God is all we have, we'll find that God is all we need. God will make a way out of no way. Today, I pray that the Lord will remind me that He is faithful, again. I know that if I'll learn to keep my eyes on Him, I can not fall. It takes a very special anointing to handle the major ups and downs in life. I want to thank the Lord for trusting me enough to allow me to have my share of them, and even though you have confidence in me to follow the path you have laid out before me, help me to learn how to be still and know that you are God. When the world is in a turmoil around me, let me taste of the nectar of life, your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever. May there always be a praise on my lips and a song in my heart, because I know where you brought me from; my life was broken, but you fashioned me into your image, and called me your precious treasure. -from The Lattereign April 24, 2011
